

Brigella

Brigella, sometimes called Briggy, is a British spanking actress, active in the early 2000s, chiefly as a spankee. A slim woman from south-east England with long fair hair, brown eyes and a narrow face yet a broad smile, she directed and starred in spanking videos made by her own production company, Cheeky Video, and ran a website called Spanking Brigella. Wider fame came through Top Marks videos and associated appearances in Kane magazine. In 2003, she featured on the cover of Kane 94.

She took her performing name from the Gor series of science fantasy novels by John Norman, explaining, "There was a Brigella in every performing troupe; she's an actress. Not only do I share her role; I share her character, feisty but submissive."^[1]
