

Sue Ellis

Sue Ellis is a British spanking actress, active in the 1980s and 1990s. A tall pale-skinned blonde with long hair, often a fringe, and an accent that located her origins in northeast England, she worked chiefly for Kane, playing spankee and switch roles. Credits occasionally listed her as Susan Ellis or Susan Durham.

Sue posed as a glamour model for several British top-shelf magazines in the early 1980s. Rustler called her Diana Goodbody; Whitehouse once introduced her as Anita Lundstrom from Sweden. She also made appearances in such German sex magazines as Private and Frivol.

Her involvement in spanking erotica dates from 1983-84, probably starting with the photo-set that illustrated Phoenix 26. She made her debut in Kane in a photo-story entitled 'Taken for a Ride' in issue 20; its cover showed her ascending stairs in a white mini-skirt followed by a man with a cane. The enthusiastic reaction of readers ensured that she made many re-appearances over the next seventeen years: 'Kane Magazine had found its First Lady'.^[1]

Harrison Marks cast Sue Ellis in seven Kane spanking videos, not counting films of Live Events. By height, build, and age, she was ill-suited to schoolgirl roles and rarely played them. She excelled in the portrayal of confident mature women who found themselves in situations where accepting a spanking seemed the better option. Her character is typically not naive and suspects that her punisher (whatever he might say) has erotic motives for beating her bottom. In two of her most celebrated films, The Ultimate Chastisement of Mandy Bait and The Beak, the Mistress, and the Schoolgirls, she plays a teacher taken to task by the headmaster.

Her spontaneity and good humour made her a very popular performer at the Kane Live Events, spanking cabarets organised in London in the 1990s.

Sue Ellis's retirement from the spanking scene was announced in Kane 86 in 2001.
